

Duties of the Early Detection of Risk Committee

1. To carry out studies for the early detection of risks that may endanger the existence, development and continuation of the company, to take the necessary precautions regarding the identified risks and to manage the risk;
2. To review risk management systems at least once a year.